- In claim 22, delete "1" and insert - - 21- -

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art that the examiner provides for the applicants disclose a method for testing an IC having surface including a node through which IC communicates via a signal by linking a terminal of an IC tester to the probe through a conductive path and the terminal form a signal path for conveying the signal between the IC and the tester. However, the prior arts of record are silent on the combination of the aboved limitation with the node, the probe, the terminal and the conductive path have impedances, and wherein impedances of at least one of the node, the probe, the terminal and the conductive path are sized relative to impedances of others of the node, the probe, the terminal and the conductive path to substantially optimize a frequency response characteristic of the signal path.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled ""Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
